Management commentary

Asia ex Japan equities gained another 2.7% in December, taking 2017 returns to more than 40%. China gained 1.9% during the month, crossing the milestone of 50% returns for 2017, while Hong Kong rose 2.7%, Taiwan 1.2%, and Korean equities rose 2.7% reflecting the appreciation of the Korean Won. Tighter monetary conditions in China and the adverse impact of lukewarm demand of iPhone X on Apple's supply chain explain the relative underperformance of Greater China versus the rest of the region in December. India and Asean countries led the region during the month. India added 4.9% following the consolidation of power by the ruling BJP through victories in key state assembly elections. However, the macro outlook was not too encouraging with Oil jumping by almost 5%, fiscal breaches due to weak tax collections and weak IIP & composite PMI. ASEAN countries had a strong run in December given the strength in commodities. Indonesia (+8.6%) benefitted from a sovereign ratings upgrade by Fitch. Thailand rose 4.9%, Malaysia 6.2% and the Philippines 5.0%, while Singapore and Pakistan stayed flat.
