Highlights

- The monthly return of the fund was 0.0% (YTD: -0.8%).
- The fund showed a positive return in February, primarily driven by stable income from the loan portfolio, despite FX volatility.
- The fund received EUR 2.8 million in repayments.
- Broad US tariffs on emerging markets have been avoided. Only China has been impacted by 20% tariffs. Emerging markets starting conditions look broadly positive in light of the uncertainty brought about by tariff implementation. Given the relatively low inflation levels, there is room to lift emerging market economic activity if needed through central bank rate cuts and fiscal support. The USD has lately weakened which has lifted some pressure from emerging market currencies, including the Colombian Peso and the South African Rand.
