* We identify two broad categories of funds to help investors think about how to construct their overall investment portfolio. We describe the following as "Core": (A) Equity funds with a global investment remit or those mainly focused on US and European markets, given the size and transparency of these markets. (B) Fixed income funds with a global investment remit or those mainly focused on US, European and UK markets and invest predominantly in investment grade debt, including government. (C) Multi asset funds with a multi asset benchmark. All other funds we describe as "Complements". Both Core and Complement funds can vary in risk level and those terms are not meant to indicate the risk level of the funds. There is no guarantee that these objectives will be met. For regionally focused investment portfolios we understand that the categorisation may be different from the perspective of different investors. Consult your financial adviser before investing to help determine if an investment in this fund and the amount of the investment would be suitable.

⁽¹⁾Please note that this estimated transaction costs figure has not been calculated using the prescribed methodologies required under EU regulations (i.e. MIFID II and PRIIPS). Where required by law or regulation, you may receive additional estimates of transaction costs from us which will be calculated using these prescribed methodologies. These additional estimates may differ from the estimated transaction cost figure included here.⁽²⁾The ongoing charges figure is based on expenses during the previous year. See details in the Key Investor Information Document. The on-going charges are the fees the fund charges to investors to cover the day-to-day costs of running the funds. They are taken from the fund and impacts on the fund's return. Fund charges will be incurred in multiple currencies, meaning that payments may increase or decrease as a result of currency exchange fluctuations. All charges will be paid out by the Fund, which will impact on the overall return of the Fund.⁽³⁾Fund returns are shown net of applicable ongoing fees within the portfolio, with dividends re-invested using the ex-dividend NAV. These returns are for comparison of performance against specified index. As the investor may be liable to other fees, charges and taxes, they are not meant to provide a measure of actual return to investors. The performance data do not take account of the commissions and costs incurred on the issue and redemption of shares.⁽⁴⁾Portfolio holdings may not represent current, future investments or all of the portfolio's holdings. Future portfolio holdings may not be profitable. For the avoidance of doubt, when buying units in the funds you are not investing directly in the portfolio holdings.

Goldman Sachs Global Future Real Estate and Infrastructure Equity Portfolio

Important Risk Considerations

- Counterparty risk a party that the Portfolio transacts with may fail to meet its obligations which could cause losses.
- Custodian risk insolvency, breaches of duty of care or misconduct of a custodian or subcustodian responsible for the safekeeping of the Portfolio's assets can result in loss to the Portfolio.
- Derivatives risk derivative instruments are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the underlying asset that they are based on. Certain derivatives may result in losses greater than the amount originally invested.
- Emerging markets risk emerging markets are likely to bear higher risk due to lower liquidity and possible lack of adequate financial, legal, social, political and economic structures, protection and stability as well as uncertain tax positions.
- Exchange rate risk changes in exchange rates may reduce or increase the returns an investor might expect to receive independent of the performance of such assets. If applicable, investment techniques used to attempt to reduce the risk of currency movements (hedging), may not be effective. Hedging also involves additional risks associated with derivatives.
- Liquidity risk the Portfolio may not always find another party willing to purchase an asset that the Portfolio wants to sell which could impact the Portfolio's ability to meet redemption requests on demand.
- Market risk the value of assets in the Portfolio is typically dictated by a number of factors, including the confidence levels of the market in which they are traded.
- Operational risk material losses to the Portfolio may arise as a result of human error, system and/or process failures, inadequate procedures or controls.
- Real estate risk the Portfolio primarily invests in a very specific sector of the economy which can be particularly exposed to a downturn in macro economic conditions or particular conditions affecting the property market.
- Small capitalisation companies risk investing in the securities of smaller, lesserknown companies may involve greater risk due to the less certain growth prospects, the lower degree of liquidity (see liquidity risk) of such shares and the greater sensitivity of small companies to changing economic conditions.
- Volatility risk an investment in the Portfolio can expose investors to higher volatility levels than is normally associated with "balanced" investment strategies, therefore the value of their investment may be subject to significant changes in the short term.
- Infrastructure Industry Risk - the Portfolio primarily invests in the infrastructure sector of the economy which may be susceptible to changes in environmental, governmental and other regulations, rising finance costs, government budget constraints and general economic conditions. These factors may negatively impact infrastructure companies' business or operations and therefore may have an impact on an investor's returns.
- Sustainability risk an environmental, social or governance event or condition that could cause the value of the portfolio to go down. Examples of sustainability risks include physical environmental risks, climate change transition risks, supply chain disruptions, improper labour practices, lack of board diversity and corruption.
- Complete information on the risks of investing in the fund are set out in the fund's prospectus.

- R² – Measure that represents the percentage of a portfolio movement linked to movements in the benchmark index return (annualised). The nearer to [1.00], the more a fund is tracking the risk of the benchmark, and the less risk that the fund is taking against the benchmark.
- Swing pricing – The swing factor represents the factor in place month end and is subject to change on any Dealing Day depending on prevailing market conditions.
- Transactions costs – Total trading costs of transactions incurred by the fund, including Commissions during year ending 30 November 2022. Does not include trading spreads incurred on transactions.
