NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2024

TIKEHAU EUROPEAN SOVEREIGNTY FUND – F-ACC-EUR

MARKET OUTLOOK

Fund philosophy. Tikehau European Sovereignty Fund is a "Long Only" fund, invested exclusively in equities with a conviction-based approach.

The fund's strategy is to build a portfolio of high-quality companies at a reasonable price, contributing to a more sovereign Europe and benefiting from this secular change. The fund's strategy is active, with exposure to a wide range of relevant sectors (technology, industry, healthcare, etc.) within mid- and large-caps.

Overall fund performance. In our portfolio, SAP (Technology/Digital Competitiveness, +5.1% in EUR) posted a remarkable operating performance, supported by the transition of its solutions to the cloud. Hermès (Luxury Goods, Cultural Exposure, +11.6% in EUR) once again benefited this month from its defensive positioning in a recessionary luxury goods sector. Airbus (Industry/Defence, +4.6% in EUR) continued to rebound in December, buoyed by encouraging signs that production and delivery rates are improving.

Novo Nordisk (Healthcare/Autonomy, -17.6% in EUR) was the main detractor. Recent data on its obesity treatment (Cagrisema), a key medium-term growth driver, have not yet demonstrated superiority over Eli Lilly's competing product. The share price of Coloplast (Healthcare/Autonomy, -9.8% in EUR) declined following the announcement of a recall of one of its urological products, despite the modest operational impact. Carl Zeiss (Healthcare/Autonomy, -19.5% in EUR) was penalised by a much more cautious outlook than expected for revenue growth and margin expansion.
